Policy Statement

West Neighbourhood House is committed to providing high quality programs and services to a diverse community. We respect and value staff, students, and volunteers working in the organization and, together, we strive to continuously improve our work. We welcome constructive feedback.

Accordingly, West Neighbourhood House has a Complaints Policy to ensure an accessible and fair process to hear and respond to complaints.

A complaint is defined as an expression of dissatisfaction with regard to a service/program, an action or a decision taken by the West Neighbourhood House, or the way in which West Neighbourhood House staff, students, or volunteers carry out their duties.

Applicability

- General Public
- Program Participants, Clients
- Volunteers
- Students
- Staff

General Principles

- All complaints shall be dealt with promptly, thoroughly, and in an impartial and fair manner.
- Complaints shall be filed as soon as possible following the date of the incident that is the subject matter of the complaint.
- Unless otherwise required by law, West Neighbourhood House has the discretion not to investigate any complaint that is submitted one year following the date of the incident that is the subject of the complaint.
- All staff, students, and volunteers are expected to cooperate fully in an investigation.
- West Neighbourhood House will advise an individual when a complaint has been made against them but will also respect the confidentiality concerns of the complainant, as set out below.

- There shall be no retaliation against any individual for making a complaint in good faith, providing information in connection with a complaint or investigation, or as a result of the resolution of a complaint. Any staff member who has been found to have engaged in retaliatory action shall be subject to discipline.
- Any staff member, student, or volunteer who is found to have lodged a complaint under this policy in bad faith or in a vexatious manner shall be subject to discipline or released from their volunteer obligations.
- Nothing in this policy prevents or discourages an individual from seeking legal recourse through the Human Rights Tribunal of Ontario, the Ministry of Labour, or any other legal avenue that may be available.
- All procedures created to carry out this policy shall comply with all applicable law.

2. Individuals are informed of how to contact the Health Services Appeal and Review Board.
3. The following West Neighbourhood House decisions can be appealed to the Health Services Appeal and Review Board:
 - A decision by West Neighbourhood House that the person is not eligible to receive a particular community service.
 - A decision by West Neighbourhood House to exclude a particular community service from the person’s plan of service.
 - A decision by West Neighbourhood House respecting the amount of any particular community service to be included in the person’s plan of service.
 - A decision by West Neighbourhood House to terminate the provision of a community service to the person.
4. The following cannot be appealed to the Health Services Appeal and Review Board:
 - The quality of a community service provided to the person or arranged for the person by West Neighbourhood House.
 - An alleged violation by West Neighbourhood House of any of the person's rights set out in the Home Care and Community Services Act, subsection 3 (1). 1994, c. 26, s. 39 (1).
5. Individuals may appeal a decision to the Health Services Appeal and Review Board once it has been rendered by West Neighbourhood House or if a decision has not been rendered within 60 days.

Complaints About Management or the Board of Directors

- If the complaint is about a Manager or Unit Director the complaint should be submitted directly to the Executive Director.
- If the complaint is about the Executive Director or about a member of the Board of Directors it should be submitted to the Board President who will respond to the complaint fairly, expeditiously and adhering as closely as possible to the procedures outlined above.
- If the complaint is about the Board President, then the Vice President will respond to the complaint adhering as closely as possible to the procedures outlined above.

- The Board President will ensure that the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors is informed of any complaints about the Executive Director.

Confidentiality

- While absolute confidentiality cannot be guaranteed, best efforts will be made to protect the privacy of a complainant and subject of the complaint to the extent reasonably practicable. Complete confidentiality cannot be guaranteed because an effective investigation requires revealing certain information to the alleged wrongdoer and potential witnesses. Accordingly, information contained in a complaint and related documentation will be shared with individuals on a “need to know” basis. Records relating to complaints will be kept confidential on the same basis.
- In some circumstances, it may be necessary to share information about a complaint with other organizations or other judicial/quasi-judicial contexts (e.g. police, professional regulatory bodies, Health Services Appeal and Review Board, Human Rights Tribunal of Ontario, Child Protection Services, grievance and arbitration procedure etc.). Information will also be shared where disclosure is required by law.
- On a case by case basis, the Executive Director and/or Board President will retain the discretion to inform other stakeholders, e.g. specific funders, about a complaint.

Board Updates

- Annually, the Executive Director (or delegate) will prepare an anonymized summary of all complaints received and, if resolved, the outcome of each, for the Board of Directors.
